

Grand Valley Society of Architects
 2006 Lunch and Learn
 Series on Sustainable
 Design

PRESENTS

RSI OR R[S] AGED PERFORMANCE

THE REAL NUMBERS

'LTTR' may be over reporting and new Air Barrier Technology

by David Kelly, CTR of Dow Chemical Canada Inc. our new product representative for Dow building products & Glenn Tench www.styrofoam.ca/4architects

The Focus

Over the years there have been many attempts to settle the R Value debates between rigid insulation manufacturers. We will discuss the past and present methods, LTTR, the issues surrounding them and what is being done to settle the issue once and for all.

When

Wednesday March 15, 2006
 Luncheon @ 12:15 presentation 12:30 to 1:15pm

Where

The STILL [in the Wax upstairs], 125 King Street West,
 Kitchener

fax back to: 578-2041 RSVP
 name: _____
 firm: _____

John Clinckett
 Tel. 519 742-7111
 Email: architect@clinckett.com

Added presentation:

Changing Technologies in Air Barriers

- o Peel & stick on, or not;
- o Torch or burn on; or
- o 20mil liquid

by Glenn Tench,
North American Sales Manager
W.R. Meadows
www.wrmeadows.com